PART C

Use this space to provide any explanations or clarifications for information and data provided as part of the report. (Append additional pages as necessary.)

The number of reports are generated based on the specific allegations. For example, a single report that alleges both sexual violence and stalking is counted as two separate reports. However, both allegations would be considered one investigation that generates a single outcome. There is also one report pending an outcome at this time.

Response to IIB. ISU has a number of additional sanctions under the Code of Student Conduct that are not dismissal or suspension. These sanctions include inactive sanctions, such as censure, disciplinary probation, and restrictive disciplinary probation. Additional sanctions also include active and educational sanctions, such as completing an assignment, attend training, and fines or fees.
