¹ Sexual violence is any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient. This may be: (a) non-consensual sexual contact: Any intentional sexual touching, however slight, with any object, by a person(s) upon a person(s) without effective consent; or (b) non-consensual sexual intercourse: Any sexual intercourse (anal, oral, or vaginal), however slight, with any object, by a person(s) upon a person(s), without effective consent. See RU Sexual Misconduct Policy at Appendix A.

² This data is from RU Counseling Center intake forms and not specific disclosures in therapy sessions.

³ Domestic violence is a pattern of abusive behavior that is used by an intimate partner to gain or maintain power and control over the other intimate partner. Domestic violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person. This includes any behaviors that intimidate, manipulate, humiliate, isolate, frighten, terrorize, coerce, threaten, blame, hurt, injure, or wound someone. See RU Sexual Misconduct Policy at Appendix A.

⁴ Dating violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person. These acts may be directed toward a spouse, an ex-spouse, a current or former
